

Letter to the Government

Imagine you are Florence Nightingale or Mary Seacole working in an army hospital. Write a letter to the government asking for some help. You could tell them:

- what the hospital is like and how it makes you feel
- what you need to make the hospital a better place
- what the soldiers need to help them get better

