

This unit builds on your learning in Foundation and will build towards your learning in Year 3, when you learn about and compare different aspects of Victorian and modern day life in 'The Victorians'.

Key Vocabulary

Key Questions

- Can you name some old and new toys?
- What is your favourite toy in the present and what is it made from?
- What were older toys made from?
- What are newer toys made from?
- Where have toys been invented?
- How have toys changed over time?
- How are toys from the past and toys from the present similar and how are they different?

Key Facts

Old toys	New toys
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marbles • Rocking horse • Teddy bear • China dolls 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Remote controlled toys • Games consoles • Interactive pets/animals • Plastic dolls

- Older toys were usually made from wood, metal or china.
- Newer toys are usually made from plastic.
- Toys have been invented in lots of different countries like China, India and Egypt.
- Toys are and have always been popular.
- Both toys from the past and toys from the present can move. Children have also always played with toys.
- In the past, some toys were clockwork or you needed to pull a string to make them move. Now, some toys are remote controlled. We also have electronic toys now and some toys from the present need batteries.

Pictures

Toys from the past

Toys from the present

